“ First of all I want to say I'm so sorry for your loss and let you know we all are here to help you through the rough times as I know just how hard it is to lose someone so close. I've loss a sister and a brother and it's a long rollercoaster ride, but we somehow find a way to carry on without our loved ones. Knowing so many people care really does help alot.

Dave and I along with the gang we hung with in high school have some wonderful memories of all the crazy parties we went to back then. Dave was always so happy and the life of the party. I have one crazy memory that stands out from the rest because it was so funny. We were at a party in st. Joe across from the lookout park along the bluff and dave had disappeared for awhile. I was getting alittle worried cause we had been drinking quite a bit. Well all of a sudden dave shows back up and informed us he was walking along the bluff and loss his footage and fell down the cliff quite a ways. He had scratches and stuff all over him from climbing back up the hill. But he was ok all n all. We all just broke out in a laugh and carried on with the evening but I've never forgot about that moment because it was really funny at the time. We were just glad he was ok and didnt break anything with the fall. He will be missed by all that knew him as he was a wonderful man. Hang on to all the good memories you have, and talk about him often as it helps with the healing process. Prayers to all of you and strength to carry on. One last thing my mother told me during my grieving is that this is God's way of testing our strength in life. And boy was she right.

I always enjoyed working with you, turn the music up as loud as we could, loud music made for better days.. I enjoyed our talks about our kids, what they were going through growing up.. family and politics... you truly were one of a kind.. keep the music loud...prayers for your family....

“ I have known Dave since St. Joseph High School together and having classes and hanging out with friends together. He has always been a good close friend and often I would run into Dad at Walgreens or Hardings and he would also give me a big hug greeted by his big smile. Dave was a super guy who had a big heart. I will miss seeing him and him riding around town in his red & white Nova. My thoughts and prayers to Alex family and loved ones. God be with you and give you strength & comfort. 🥺🙏💕

“ I met Dave when I was young and went to go get gas in my first car, bright yellow Pacer. That's right upside down fishbowl looking car. He worked at Tulsa gas station and we became friends immediately. His sense of humor and kindness and long blond tresses made all the girls crazy. He was a handsome dude, even if his hair was better than mine. We grew up and had kids and soon enough our little girls became best of friends. My daughter Megan and Alexandria went to school together and shared lots of laughs and great times over the years. Their house was like a second home for my girl. Dave and Anna treated her like their own kid...Great memories for us all. GOD Bless this family as they travel down this road, hold their hands and hearts together as they grieve. I am always here and am praying for Alexandria and Anna. We love you. Your friend, Pam Shoemaker
