

Edna Mae King

January 18, 1924 - January 8, 2012

St. Joseph – Edna Mae King, 87, of St. Joseph, formerly of Benton Harbor, passed away on Sunday, January 8, 2012, at Royalton Manor in St. Joseph. The Fairplain Chapel of Benton Harbor has been entrusted with the arrangements

Tribute Wall

D.

“"Ol Edner" was a great neighbor on Rose Ave for soooooo many years. I remember being a couple houses down at my grandparent's house and she would holler at you if she seen you in the driveway and wave. Edna would invite us in at Halloween for her home made treats. You will be missed by so many Edna. Thank you for being such a great neighbor. Now you can walk in that beautiful garden with God, Slim, your kids and Bob and Lucille and other loved ones.

A special thank you to the staff at Royalton Manor. You would welcome family and friends when we came to see her. I'm sure you could count on her for a laugh when you needed it.

D.R.P - February 04, 2013 at 03:12 AM

LL

“The memories of Edna are many...she was always up to participating, or trying something new. One year for Halloween she allowed us to dress her up as the Princess and the Frog, long blond hair and all! Edna had a wonderful sense of humor and could easily be made to laugh, or to make someone else laugh. She was the resident I would go to if I needed someone to befriend a new resident and get them involved. If I were asked to describe Edna in one word, I would say she was a "Hoot". She was kind, she was funny, and she absolutely loved being Roger's mom. Edna will be greatly missed, but how thankful I am to have known her and loved her. Lisa - Royalton Manor

Lisa Laughlin - January 10, 2012 at 03:24 PM