“ God's blessing to everyone. I so enjoyed spending a little time visiting with Uncle Johnnie and his brother and sister this past summer. I pray for everyone.

“ Johnnie was married to my first cousin, Gretna Sansom. The summer after finishing high school I worked in Chicago so that i would have money for school is the Fall. Johnnie and Gretna invited me to stay with them. They would never accept any money, it was always, "you save it for college." I was not the only person that they helped over the years. Johnnie loved his family, including the extended family. He was a gracious and loving man and it was my good fortune to have known him.

“ Uncle Johnnie touched so many lives. We are forever grateful for the last few summers that he was able to travel to Tennessee to have a reunion with his surviving brother and sister. He was such a blessing to be around. The kindest man we knew. His smile would light up the room. Looking forward to celebrate with him in heaven. Our prayers are with his kids and families during these coming weeks.
