“ Dear Lord , I was just thinking about Randy, yesterday... with great sadness, I will remember my good friend, I first met him in algebra class, at E C high, he was new to school and looked like he needed a friend, found out he liked country music, that's before country was cool!, we hung out became good pals since, even though we caused a number of troubles in those days, we always had a grand time, I think stature of limitations is up.... like fleeing, vs high school and Tammy Smith's house.... Randy always had that shut eating grin, even when we got. Caught, lime doing burn out in his red nova in middle of town, back roads, cruising the plaza after work at ponderous in Benton harbor, shooting off bottle rockets at each other at beach's, and oh the parties.... it was hard keeping up w him and little bonebright,(michael) thanks Randy for the memories, pal, may we meet in heaven, and renew a good friendship.... my sincere condolences to family and friends, may God's peace comfort you all, where my fool words cant...
