“ Tom (my dad) was a VERY intelligent man. In our phone conversation on Christmas Eve 2018, we mentioned that we were looking at the St. Joseph Pier webcam and all the snow/ice on the catwalk. Tom said, "I built that catwalk," referring to the model he built of the St. Joseph Pier. Tom was proud of his work and rightly so as you can see in the photos of the models he built. Tom's grandchildren (Thomas and Jean MARIE) are very intelligent, successful young adults and we always tell them, "You inherited your brains from Papa (Tom)."

“ Dear Geri ... my sincere condolences to you and your children with Tom's passing. I just this morning discovered Tom had passed earlier this month. I feel so shocked that I didn't know. Tom and you have been such wonderful friends especially in the past few years when you both would be able to be at our "54 BHHS breakfasts" How we will miss seeing Tom. We hope you will be able to come and visit with us on those special times
. Good friends ... God's special blessings for you.

“ Back in the 1970's I lived next door to Tom and Gerry. Tom was a great neighbor, always friendly and fun to talk to. I had two little boys who were 2 and 4 at the time this story took place. We had a seven foot tall fence around our backyard and my boys were playing there when I went in the house and down the basement to take a load of clothes out of the washer and put them in the dryer. I also took some clothes out of the dryer and folded a few items when I heard the doorbell ring. I ran upstairs, opened the front door, and there was Tom holding my three year old like a sack of potatoes. He said, "I found him on my roof. He was planning to fly off". Philip, my son, was wearing his superman costume that I had made for the previous Halloween. :In that short time, he had climbed the fence and gotten onto the roof of Tom's shed and evidently flown off the shed. Then he saw Tom's triangular television antenna which was planted in the ground next to his house. Philip climbed the antenna and was running around on top of Tom's house. Tom was home for lunch and heard the unusual sounds up above, went outside in his back yard, only to find Philip on the edge of his roof. Needless to say, both of the boys' supermen suits got thrown in the trash that day.
Thank God for a great neighbor!

“ To all of Gerry & Tom's Family ... Friends to many to list! All of us at Indian Lake Hills will miss Tom and Gerry. I could tell when he came out, he enjoyed watching and heckling the Gast League teeing off. He was a striker in his day and we're so happy to be a part of his life that brought him such pride (on a good day!) and humility (on a bad day!).

“ Gerry and family, I just saw your husband's obit on line and am so sorry for your loss. I don't know if you were at our 60th reunion and I wasn't at last summer's luncheon, so I missed seeing you. I know that your children will take good care of you and God will watch over you all. My sincere condolences to you. Mary Te Roller Stewart.
