“ My deepest condolences to the Lesher family. I developed a friendship with Whitney in Los Angeles. She was intelligent, gifted, and beautiful. She had a true love for art and music and was always accepting of people, no matter who they were or where they were from. These are rare qualities in the world. She will be greatly missed. I will never forget her wonderful smile and spirit. I know you're still rocking it somewhere, Whitney.

With love, Johnny.

“ We haven't seen you in years; I remember a strong willed 4 year old, always a challenge for your Mom and Dad. My mother, Margaret, babysat for you, Zach and Alex and she loved you unconditionally. Your time was too short; you would have been one to change the world. We saw you briefly as an adult, the last picture we saw was of you kissing Roger's forehead as he lay dying - I had forgotten about that picture. But ... you are part of God's plan, no one is a mistake, and He takes only the best to be with Him in Heaven. Do great things for us on earth, Whitney; we need you.

Love, Ron and Lois

“ Whitney-- I remember your joy and zest for life. It was never a dull moment being you middle school counselor. Remember when we used soot from the fire to make our faces black, and then we all snuck out in the middle of the night and made sand castles at Warner Camp? I'm glad I got to be a part of your life. Thanks for the laughs and excitement.

“ Whitney was a awesome niece and was never so proud of her as I was on July 20 when she received Jesus in her heart. What a transformation of Gods love to her. She will be missed in this earthly life but to be absent from the body is better to be present with the Lord!!! Say hello to Grandma Marschke for us !!! We live you!!!

Eleanor Marschke - September 13, 2015 at 04:32 PM

“ I had the privilege of knowing Whitney as her youth group leader at First Church of God in St. Joe. I remember her as so full of life and laughter. She stole my heart the first time I met her. She had an energy that couldn't be contained. I prayed diligently for Whitney as she searched for significance and acceptance in this world. I knew she had a head knowledge about Jesus but wasn't sure she had really accepted him as her Lord. What a thrill it was for me when I visited her a week and a half before her passing that she said to me "Jesus found me". She truly had Jesus in her heart!!! I will miss you Whitney this side of heaven but this is not the end, rather, "Til we meet again"! #danceforjesus
My sincerest condolences to her family. I am praying for you all!

“ Such beauty, such vibrancy, so much life lived in so little time. Whitney had a fierce, independent, creative and seeking energy that compelled her to live life on her terms, a comet lighting the night, unbounded by the limits of a terrestrial life or the frailties of a mortal body.

“My candle burns at both ends;
It will not last the night;
But, ah, my foes, and oh, my friends,
It gives a lovely light.”, Edna St. Vincent Millay

“ Love you girl.... Whit came and stayed with me and my roommate Danny (a colleague of hers from work) years ago! I had many talks, laughs, lunches with you. You always had my back as you said, "cause you had mine". Thank you for coming in my life...

“ We understand what it is like to lose a child, as we lost Mark when he was 27. It gives us hope and peace to remember that he is living in Jesus' arms and waiting for us. We wish Whitney's family the same hope and peace.
