“Oswaldo and Araceli, this is Chip Weeks, Aaron’s accounting professor. I am so sorry for your loss. I was heartbroken to hear the news last year. My prayers are for you and your family.

Aaron was a great student and even a better person. He is the type of student that makes my job worth doing. That speaks to me of the type of parents that you are. You did well.

Aaron was a hard worker even when he was battling health issues. I appreciated him.

One story I wanted to share that speaks to the type of person he was is when I used a story about my favorite candy bar in an example in class, the next class period Aaron left a “Big Kat” Kit Kat bar on my podium. He was a giver.

I am so sorry for your loss, as a believer in Jesus, I am praying for you and your family.
