“ Just learned of Adeline's death and was tossed back some 75 years when as a lad, I had a crush of her. Her family lived across from my grandparents, William and Eda Strome in Sodus, MI. She and my sister, Clara Jean, were friends and when she would visit, my grandparents' upright piano came to life. In my eyes, she was tall, she was beautiful, and she was talented. Sweet sleep Adeline. Thanks for the memories. Sincere condolences to the family. Dr. Sherwood Snyder

“ I was Adeline's caregiver for a few months, before she moved to the Willows. She loved her music, and telling stories about her life in Chicago, and her family. She was such a sweet woman, and enjoyed her company. I had been to see her at Christmas time, and a couple times before that. She always had a smile for you. Rest in peace, Adeline. Sorry for the family's loss. Linda Kaiser

My mother's brother, Jim, was married to Adeline. She was my favorite aunt - always so nice and funny. I knew her when she lived in Chicago. I lost track of her & thought she had probably passed away years ago. I just happened to look her up on the internet and found her obituary. I was surprised to learn that she just recently died. I wished I had known; I would have loved to have visited her. Rest In Peace, sweet Aunnr Adeline. Nancy Livingston
