January 5, 1946 - December 10, 2016

Adewole "Amos" Olaniyan, 70, of Benton Harbor died Saturday, December 10, 2016.

Services celebrating his life will be held at 11 AM on Monday, Dec 19, at the Fairplain Seventh Day Adventist Church. The family will receive friends and relatives beginning at 10 AM on Monday at the Church. Cremation will follow the service. Arrangements are by the Fairplain Chapel of Florin Funeral Service in Benton Harbor. Please share memories, messages, or photos at www.florin.net.

Amos was born on Jan 5, 1946 in Nigeria to Adeyemo and Omonike Olaniyan. He married his wife, Bola, and together they have celebrated 39 years of marriage. He received his first Master's Degree from Western Oregon University and his second Master's Degree from Andrews University. He had been employed at Lakeland Continuing Care and was also a substitute teacher. Amos was a Christian man and enjoyed teaching bible study. He was a member of the Fairplain Seventh Day Adventist Church. Amos also enjoyed his gardening and working outdoors. He was a gentle, dependable and very patient individual, but still had a sense of humor.

His family includes his wife, Bola; his son, John Olaniyan, of Washington State; his daughter, Sarah Olaniyan, of Santa Rosa, CA; his siblings, Dr.

Caroline Okedara, of Nigeria, Ajibade Olaniyan, of Nigeria, and Toun Akinola, of England and his several nieces and nephews.
