“ Dear Dr. and Mrs. Keegstra,

My name is Lindsey Johnson, and I traveled in Up With People with Amy in Cast D 78-79. We have been preparing a list of emails for our cast in preparation for the 50th Anniversary of Up With People this summer. We had lost track of Amy and in seeking her out again, we were so sad to see this posting. After UWP, I returned to Chicago for college, and had the chance to see Amy a couple of times -- once at College (we have our family cottage in Holland, MI), and a couple of times right after she graduated once she moved to Chicago. Last June, I went to Benton Harbor for the opening of an exhibit of my Aunt's work at the Krasl there in St. Joseph. Before I went, I emailed to the last email I had for Amy in the hopes that I might connect with her if she was back in Benton Harbor. Clearly she was on my mind for a reason. Amy was a people person, with huge heart and a lovely voice. Please know all of us who traveled with Amy wish you -- her family -- our heartfelt sympathies.

*Sincerely,
Lindsey*

“ I travelled with Amy in Up With People and we roomed together in Melfort Saskatchewan. I have been back home in Wales for the last 20 years but my thoughts are with Amy's family. My journal was not very good but I found this in it. Can't remember what Amy was doing up the tree but she was smiling as always. GillThomas

“ I was in school with Amy in the 6th grade when we were part of the academically talented program Benton Harbor schools ran out of Fairplain West school. Amy was always so cheerful and inquisitive. I will always remember when our class took a field trip to Chicago and Amy was just such a wonderful person to be around. My condolences for your great loss.

“ I remember Amy as a wonderful person. She was very loving and caring toward Aiden and Fiona. She would always tell me "Watch him when he goes through the door. He's going to say bye to me for the fourth time." He would say good-bye again and she would tell me "I told you, Illuminada." And when she would come to pick him up, she would say "I got something for you", and with a smile she would hand me a Butterscotch candy. My prays go to her family withs lots of love and she will be very missed by many.

“ from Nick Branson
Even if your not religious, one has to admit the memory and matter of loved ones passed lives on in this world. So tonight I'm carrying the memory of my Aunt Amy with me on my first shift at Mindy's Hot Chocolate. She opened my mind at a very young age to liver and onions, pickling, spicy food, and Asian influences. She always stressed proper technique but wasn't afraid to hack a situation. Her passion lives on in me and will never be truly lost.

“ I have struggled with what to write, because I can't adequately convey how Amy was such an integral and beloved part of our family. From the time both Fiona and Aidan were newborns she has provided them with care, comfort, love, guidance and support. Amy was singular in her ability to nurture, and we are so fortunate and grateful that we had the opportunity to know and love her these past almost fifteen years. She will always be in our hearts, and is part of the kids forever. ”

She was loved. And she loved in return. You were her Family here in Chicago.

Aidan and Fiona:

You are sad and upset right now, but i can tell you the pain will fade , and that is how it should be.

It will get better.

Our thoughts, love, and prayers are with your family whom Amy shared her life with daily. " Our loved ones leave the world, but never our hearts. You will always remember. You will always love. So much has changed, but so much will always be.... Amy is part of who you are, of how you see the world....of how you live and give. Those priceless gifts are yours forever. Your family was so richly blessed by Amy's love and spirit of giving.

“ It was obvious how dedicated Amy was to Fiona and Aidan's life. They loved her and respected her. I will always remember her face as she picked them up from school and holding their little hands as they walked away. What a dedicated lady...she will truly be missed.

“ Amy recently attended the 6th grade author's celebration where she listened to Aidan and his classmates share pieces of their writing. She was devoted to Aidan and Fiona - always present for them at Burley. Aidan spoke of Amy often. The whole class came to know her over the years. She was a member of the Burley community. We were stunned and saddened to learn of her passing. She will be sorely missed.

“ Everyone at school knows how much Amy was truly a part of Aidan and Fiona's family, and we are all saddened by this sudden loss. Her dedication and caring were apparent every day, and she will be missed in the Burley community.

“ Going to Jr. High and High School with Amy was a hoot and a half! We had so much fun in band, Mrs. Atwood's French class, eating lunch in Mr. Farnum's room , and all the various classes we had together. It was so easy to make Amy's face turn beat red! And we tried to make that happen often! My memories of Amy are numerous and comedic. It's been 35 years since I've seen or heard from Amy, and yet I'm devastated at her passing. How ironic that our 35 yr. reunion is the same day as her funeral service! I can't stop thinking about her. My condolences to the family and my prayers are for your comfort and peace. “ I got to know Amy over the years at Aidan's school during pick up time. She was always early (as was I) so we had plenty of time for some nice chats. She treated Aidan and Fiona as her own children. I always thought how lucky they were to have a nanny who was so dedicated and had been with them so long. I will miss seeing her smiling face!
