“ I miss you everyday momma. I wish you were here to see how far I've come with how you raised me & how I'm raising your granddaughter. You and daddy Jack Pulliam would be so proud. If I had one wish it would be for to see and touch you and daddy just one more time. It's been 12 1/2 years and it still feels like yesterday, that pain will never go away. I wanted to give back to you both what you gave to me LIFE, LOVE, COURAGE & Peace of mind. Momma you sacrificed so much and I never got the opportunity to show how much it meant. This pain will never go away until I see you. Love you, love daddy, love Annie Jewel who I never got a chance to even know.
