“ We, along with my now deceased parents, Toni and Edmund Weiss, knew Arnold growing up along with his Mother, whom he dearly cared for and lived with until her death in her very elder years. While she was living, he took her on Sundays to church every week. He was a very hard worker and always had a sense of humor. He was of German heritage and the hard work ethic definitely was instilled in him. He rode his bike everyday throughout the day when his eyesight began to fail and could not no longer drive a car and rode daily with this bike to the "Chicken Coup" off Niles Road to eat his hot chicken meal. He enjoyed fishing on his small motor boat daily in the summer along Lake Michigan and sharing his fish with neighbors around his home. He had little close family, but was content with himself after his Mother died until he had to be placed into a nursing facility wherein the nursing staff really enjoyed taking care of him. He liked flirting with the nursing staff and playing cards and would not miss a game of bingo. Plus, he really enjoyed eating the hot meals and never complained. There are not a lot of friends nor family to light a candle for him. So we wish Arnold Peace and Happiness In Heaven wherein he will be re-united with his much beloved Mother, Mrs. Kautz.
