Austin was born on Oct 14, 1989 in Berrien Center to Kelly (Rummage) Dickey and Anthony Wedge. He attended Prescott Valley Charter School in AZ and Lakeshore High School in MI. Austin loved to cook and worked as a line cook. He always said he wanted to be a professional cook. Before he settled into his cooking career he tried many different jobs and always excelled at anything he did. Austin was not predictable even from birth and was not afraid to try anything. Austin was an energetic and full of life person who always tried to make us smile.

He leaves behind his mother, Kelly (Rory) Dickey; his father, Anthony Wedge; his brothers and sisters, Daniel Wakefield, Cassie Beebe, Tyler Dickey, Alissa (Nathan) Long, Haley Dickey, Dane` Wakefield and Jeri Faye Wakefield; his many Uncles, Aunts, Nieces, Nephews, Cousins, and his many, many friends that Austin was close to.

“Austin was my biggest cheerleader. He believed in me more than I did sometimes, always trying to make me smile and laugh. We were best buds when we were younger, from midget football, wrestling video games to our own wrestling matches (which once ended in my head going through the wall-which he obviously helped me hide from the parents), he was my big brother who I could always count on. I can't imagine me without him. Miss you, Austin.
