“Ava and I had a gathering few days after she got diagnosed and it was the best time. We just sat up late and talked and talked about anything and everything. I'll always remember it. She was a great woman and will be missed by many.

“Gone but not forgotten. Ava has left all of us with a little memory of her. Her loving personality, generosity, contagious smile, willingness to help and keep others smiling as she was battling her own battles with this nasty cancer. No longer suffering resting, breathing without struggling.
Gone but never forgotten,, Love from Debbie tait (skjoldal) till we meet again RIP
