

Beatrice L Pratl

March 3, 1927 - September 22, 2022

Beatrice Pratl, 95, formerly of Stevensville, died Thursday, September 22, 2022 at Woodland Terrace in Coloma.

Services will be held at a later date at the Fort Custer National Cemetery where Bea will be buried next to her husband. Cremation has taken place. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Caring Circle Hospice. Please share messages or memories at www.florin.net.

Beatrice was born on March 3, 1927 in Chicago to Ernest and Pearl Hentschel. She married her husband, Joseph Pratl, Sr. in 1948 who preceded her in death in 1998. She enjoyed crocheting, sewing, watching birds from her deck, and had a love of animals. She had many close friendships which developed while she worked at Heath Co., where she retired after over 25 years. These friendships lasted a lifetime. Family and friends meant so much to her and were the focus of her life.

Her family includes her children, Nancy (Steve) Simpkins of Atmore, AL, Mike Pratl of TX., Pat (Mike) Cornett of Semmes, AL., Pam (Tom) Kamrath of Ann Arbor, MI., and Terri (Alex) Baker of Windsor, CA., her sister Jackie Harris of Stevensville, her 13 grandchildren, 20 great grandchildren, and 2 great great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her son, Joseph Pratl, Jr. in 2018 and her 3 sisters; Genevieve, Marian, and Betty.

“The things that matter most in our lives are not fantastic or grand. They are moments when we touch one another, when we are there in the most attentive or caring way”.
