“ I will always fondly remember my mother Sarah Kliger, Selma Smith, Dorothy and Irene Walton and BJ plus several other ladies enjoying each other's company at their monthly Birthday Club card gatherings. A lovely group!

Through the 32 years I have had the pleasure of knowing BJ, especially the last 15 years that we grew even closer. I will never forget those special Christmas cookies she always made a point to make the family, (an extra batch for Oliver and myself before we headed south; butter cookies & pecan sandies.) And birthdays, would never be the same without her delicious cupcakes! Another unforgettable moment, was when my mother passed away in 2007 and BJ offered her condolences which included the words "Judy, I know I will never replace your mother, but please know that I am here for you if you need me as a mother anytime." Those words meant so much to me. I am so grateful God gave me the opportunity to spend the time we did together. You will be missed dearly, but we all know you are now celebrating your new life, pain free and full of peace and joy with our Lord and Savior and, we will see you again one day soon.
