“ My Beautiful Aunt Bonnie...I will always remember her sweet, soft voice, her love for painting, our nature walks together in her yard, visiting Deer Forest, driving by Degroots to see the fields of flowers in bloom, taking walks down to the lake, going to church with her and Uncle Mark, she took me to painting class and helped me paint pictures on sweatshirts, we made hand woven baskets out of fabric & crepe, she taught me how to make Almost Tosis cake, bread and butter pickles & fruit salad. She was very talented. Most important, she always told me how much Jesus loved me 🧡🌹 ”

“ Goody Goody you're in HEAVEN !!! Finally huh. 😍 praise JESUS . If you knew our mamma you'd know she was always fill with life and love. There was nothing she couldn't do. Everyday she would tell us to" keep our eyes open" .👁👁 We would say why and she would tell us " cuz you will run into something if u keep them closed"!!! 🤪 and she would bust out laughing with us . She would always make sure we were taught how to look for the beauty in everything. No matter what!! Her heart was bigger than this world ! And she was on fire for our Lord Jesus Christ . I'll say more later . i love you Mamma 🥰 love Timmy
