“ I have so many memories I will forever cherish such as her comments towards my ripped jeans and thinking I was too poor to afford new ones! She would always feel my belly when I was pregnant with Livvy and was convinced I was having twins. She loved her southern food and we enjoyed eating lunch with her and reminiscing about her cooking and her love for gardening. She would take her for walks around her neighborhood and she would pull weeds more than walk. She definitely had a firecracker personality and I would constantly be asked to assist when she was at the PACE center because she would refuse to take off her coat or give the staff a hard time when it came to care and or coming and going from the facility. She definitely had a few favorite cuss words but she had such a love for Livvy which I will forever cherish. I am so happy she would able to meet Titus even though she didn't truly remember who we were anymore due to her advanced dementia. She still held on to her personality. You will forever be missed. Love you Grandma.
