

Charles Faulkner Jr.

June 4, 1924 - July 19, 2012

Charles Faulkner, Jr., 88, of Coloma and formerly of Benton Harbor died Thursday, July 19, 2012, at Caretel Inns in St. Joseph.

Services celebrating his life will be held at 11 AM on Monday, July 23, at the Dey-Florin Chapel of Florin Funeral Service in St. Joseph with Rev. William Hughes officiating. Burial will follow at North Shore Memory Gardens. The visitation will be from 2 PM to 5 PM on Sunday at the Dey-Florin Chapel. Please share memoires, messages or photos at www.florin.net.

Charles was born on June 4, 1924 in Hayti, Missouri. He was a veteran of the US Army during WWII. He married his wife, Evelyn, in 1942 and she preceded him in death in 1991. Together they celebrated 49 years of marriage. Charles was an independent truck driver who retired in 1985. He was a member of the First Free Will Baptist Church in Benton Harbor. He enjoyed fishing and was an avid bowler. Charles had a way with people that everyone around him loved. He was a devoted Christian and a strong family man.

He is survived by his children, Tammy Blankenship of South Bend and Charles B. Faulkner of Indianapolis and his 3 grandchildren, Justin Faulkner of St. Joseph, Brittany Blankenship of Niles and Alex Wells of Waverly, TN.

“ Tammy and Chuck. I am sorry about Uncle Charles' passing. Several people in our small town have asked why I didn't go to Michigan for a funeral but they didn't know who passed. I found Uncle Charles' obituary online. None of the Ferrells told me, but then they didn't tell me about Grandma Unger's passing either. Thoughts and prayers are with you. I enjoyed the pictures.

“ What can I say about a wonderful Christian brother like Bro.Charles other than he believed in his LORD & SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST.He was a quiet man that believed in the WORD OF GOD and lived it to the best of his ability.We only knew him when we became members of the "body of Christ" at First Free Will,but in that time you could see his life reflected what he believed.We salute him as a veteran and more importantly as a fellow saint who now is in the presents of the LORD.My the LORD bless and comfort his family.Keep in memory his life and what he stood for.

“ Tammy and Family~ I'm sorry sorry for your loss, I have alot of great memories of your Dad and your Mom growing up. I always had such a great time with you guys at church and we would always get together and do things. I will always cherish those days for as long as I live. Very happy times for me. Your Dad was such a Great Dad and a Wonderful and Caring person, He will be missed by many. He went home to be with his loveing lord and savior. I know your Mom was waiting for him too~ It feels my heart with so much Joy that he is there and not suffering anymore~ We will all Miss You Brother Faulkner~ Until We See Again~ Sending My Love Brenda~
