“ I am so sorry to learn of your dad's passing. If I had known sooner I definitely would have been at his service. He was a cherished member of the Don Shoes family for so many years, and I was always so glad to run into him at Lowe's. He was a wonderful man, and always so proud of his children! Please know that he will be missed by many!

“ So sorry for your loss. I will forever remember Mr. Lundeen taking us on nature walks in Coloma. He was such a sweet gentle man. I also am grateful for him taking me to church with his daughters my childhood friends, Debbie and Ellen on Sunday when I was just 7 yrs old. Then we would go to Grandmas' for lunch and play in her basement, when they lived in Benton Harbor. Rest in Peace dear David. Jill (Barfell) Miller Fox AR
