“ Dorothy Lee and the 'entire Tohtz clan' came into my life at the age of 12 when I became a babysitter for Mary, Michelle, and Marcy. And like a cold, I stuck around. Dorothy Lee had such a loving spirit, joy and laughter she shared with everyone she came in contact with. Last fall, when I was passing through Jacksonville, I made it a point to stop by and visit with her. That smile, joy and love radiated from her still.

Dorothy Lee, you were loved, a joy to be around, and I am so happy you came into my life. You will be deeply missed, and it was an honor to have you as a friend and in my life.

Say hello to your mom and dad for me.

Love you always,

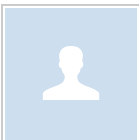

Sue
