“ Scott and Mary,

We are very sorry for your loss, but rejoice in the many years that you had to share with your dad to make so many memories and now he is looking down on you taking care of you from above. I remember the first time I ever saw him....Corey was outside playing catch with his mitt and ball by himself and De walked across the street and just started up a friendly conversation with him and threw the ball a few times to him. So friendly and willing to strike up a conversation! I hope you are comforted knowing he is now in a better place. Hugs to you and the family!
