“ The first time I met Mrs. Embrey was also the first time I met her son Jeff. I was a freshman in High school and had heard of Jeff, he was a bit of a legend...and with good reason.

I met them by accident...my accident, I was riding my BMX bike home after school and crashed in front of them...She stopped her car, Jeff put my bike in her trunk and insisted on giving me a ride home.

Jeff & I became fast friends, working together at my dads 7-UP business, going on trips with our family, clubbing at The Whitehouse and the wild South Bend House days.

One Thanksgiving my family was out of town & Jeff brought me a wonderful plate of home cooking love from his mom, What a woman.

You are a very special lady, you'd have to be to produce someone as remarkable as Jeff.

*I knew him for just a flicker and miss him dearly.
Thank you for Jeff and for being so sweet to me.*

“ Liz and Tom's house was my second home during my first year away from home at college. While I was dating Jeff she always made me feel so loved and welcome in her home. She was always warm and caring and funny. I am thankful that she was a part of my life.

“ Liz was very capable of clowning around!! ...Pregnant with Jeff and doning work boots for the picture.!!.....She is one of the few people that I have known that could "act silly"and still maintain her quiet dignity.....
Even though I havent seen her in years.....my heart is so sad.....!
Iloved her as she was a big part of my life in our coming of age years.....
Her sister Sharon(an angel)made it possible for me to talk with her during this last year.....I so appreciate that.....
Regards to you Tom as you have been in my thoughts and prayers.....
