

Emily Robinson

July 25, 1938 - October 3, 2012

Emily Robinson, 74, of Benton Harbor, passed away early Wednesday morning, Oct. 3, at Lakeland Regional Medical Center in St. Joseph.

Funeral services celebrating her life will be held at 12:00 Noon on Friday, Oct. 12, 2012 at Ebenezer Baptist Church, 214 Britain, in Benton Harbor, with Rev. Lee Taylor officiating. Visitation will be held from 11:00 until the time of the service at the church. Burial will follow at Crystal Springs Cemetery. Services have been entrusted to the Fairplain Chapel of Florin Funeral Service in Benton Harbor. Messages of condolence may be sent to www.florin.net.

Emily was born on July 25, 1938 in Jackson, Louisiana. She was one of four children born to Henry and Sarah Carter. Emily married Thomas Robinson, Sr. on Christmas Day and together they parented 14 children. Emily was a long-time member of the community. She and her brother Tobe often sponsored Labor Day gathering events for their family and friends. Emily loved helping people and was always making herself available to those in need. She enjoyed baking pies and cakes. Emily was known as the 'Matriarch' of her family, and she often said, "I have a wonderful family" whom she loved very much.

Emily is survived by her sons, Thomas, Jr., Oscar, Alphonso Robinson, and Gary Taylor; daughters, Margaret Wilford, Gloria Brown, Flora Thomas, Bonnie Clayton, Joyce Taylor, and Letha Robinson; her brother, Tobe Carter; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren.

In addition to her parents, Emily was preceded in death by her husband Thomas Robinson, Sr. in 1988; her sons, Danny Ray, Reginald, and Malcolm; and by her siblings, Joseph Carter and Annie Mae Reed.
