“ I am so sorry about the heartache everyone must be feeling due to Sue passing so suddenly. It seems to me that this is a love story and that she is exactly where she belongs... with God and Al. One of my best memories of Sue was when I gave birth to my middle daughter and I was sitting in that hospital bed a few hours from being discharged... bored... and in walks Sue. She was totally unexpected, being my cousins' Grandma and not mine, but she had heard I had a new baby and Al was at the hospital (for some condition that escapes my memory-- that was just short of 16 years ago) and she took the time to come and visit with me. I'll never forget that. We had such a nice visit! When I look at Sue's life and her accomplishments, I see a woman that had her priorities in order. She was a Proverbs woman, putting her God, marriage, and family at the helm! She always had a smile and hug for everyone and I know she will be deeply missed. I'm sorry to have missed the visitation and service.... but you are all in my prayers.

“ I can remember all the good times, great food and laughs. Swan Lake, the camp fires, Sue and Uncle Al having the grandkids there to go fishing. The pontoon boat rides. Sue will be missed. The Arnt's, Poledna's and Fautersack's all going mushroom or deer hunting. What fun they all had. Now they are all playing cards and having so much fun. We have all the parental angels looking out for us kids. They are pain free and happy. What more can we ask for than to see our loving parents again in our heavenly home.
My prayers are with you,

“ Aunt Sue & Uncle Al are going to be dearly missed. Uncle Al's would always seek me out and make me feel special at family gatherings with hugs & kisses. I'm gonna miss Aunt Sue's laugh and her funny family stories. I remember when I was little, at their famous New Years parties, she would make me a "slow gin fizz" (minus the gin of course) and I would feel like one of the grown ups with my own pretty red drink! Also, I always said when my hair started going gray, I wouldn't color it as long as it looked great like Aunt Sue's "salt & pepper".
