“ My dear aunt that I love, and who loved me, taught me and helped raise me. Oh how I love you and your sweet family I lived with. She & my uncle AD rescued me and gave me love and shelter, and my cousins: Jack, Wayne, Diana, Pam and Pattie shared their life and parents during a crucial part of my life. The USMC became my teacher after Coloma High School.

Dear aunt Eunice, I look forward to our great reunion after I cross through the veil into eternity. May GOD bless your family until we are all reunited.

A loving nephew, Fred Treece

“ Sorry to hear of Eunice's passing. My husband, Johnny, and I used to work with sweet Eunice at the Plaza Shell in Benton Harbor. She was always good to sit and visit with. Eunice had a special touch to quiet a crying baby and would always have her arms wide open when we would bring our now 20 year old son in the station. She will be missed. We will see you again Eunice.
