“ My dearest Joyce, you are going to be missed by so many. Cathy and Kids I am so sorry for your loss. .She was one in a million. I remember Cathy and Joyce used to travel to Chicago for the weekend many times. We ate and drank and had so many laughs. She also was the best cook I ever met. She taught me how to make Baked Beans her style and I still take them to many functions here. Everyone wants the recipe. We loved her like our sister, and she will always hold a special place in our hearts. R.I.P. Joyce. We love you, and I better hear you shout out "hey you dizzy broad" when I meet you at the pearly gates.

“ *I've never lost a loved one I was as close to as my Grandma Joyce.
Even though I've lived in Florida for the past 17 years, I visited and talked to her frequently. There was nothing better in life than sitting at the kitchen table with her in July, drinking a few beers (Natural Light was her fave), catching up, talking trash, and playing the card game Sixty-Five. I looked forward to my annual Grandma Joyce and Cathy visit. Any stress I was going through would alleviate the moment I parked in her driveway.*

Kelly and I had her parents over to our house this past Saturday and we played Sixty-Five in her honor. I miss her a lot already and it's only been three days. I love you forever, Grandma.
