“ I will miss the many good times we had growing up in the neighborhood. The time we moved and lived in Chicago for a month. You were part of my life growing up and you will always be remembered. You were always there to help a person when needed.
RIP my life long friend.

“ My deepest sympathy to the Bass family and friends.
He was such a quiet asset to our community. His participation in the civil rights movement and his active involvement as a Deacon at Second Baptist Church, His volunteer driver of the church bus for vacation bible school and other trips proved his willingness to serve our community. He will be missed as an asset in our community.
Rest In Peace my friend

“ A good friend has passed. Hiegi and I first met in the 50's at the Dances at Jean Klock Park. That friendship still remains to this day. I will cherish our friendship forever and miss our conversations when we would meet at Babe's. May the peace of the Lord be with you and your family. RIP my man.....
