“ I didn't know Harold and Pat had passed. I apprenticed with Harold for four summers when I was still in grade school and I'll remember him always as one of the most kind, warm-hearted men I've ever met. He and Pat shared a bond that was beautiful to witness; I remember every day after lunch he would find a pay-phone to give her a call to see how she was doing, as well to remind her to take a nap. These were two beautiful humans and the world is a bit less for their absence. Rest in Peace, Harold & Pat.

“ I was blessed to call Harold a friend. Christ is the only better friend than him. Harold helped me out many times during the years. And Pat was a precious woman who loved the Lord.

“ I had the absolute pleasure of working with Harold at Coloma Twp. He was the sweetest soul who greeted every day with a smile. I always looked forward to hearing stories of his youthful adventures and his being the recipient of his huge, warm hugs. He adored his wife above everything else, listening to him talk about her gave me faith that there really were great men out there. I know he is at peace with her now. Rest in peace Harold.
