Horace was born on March 7, 1937 in Norwood Ohio to Horace and Ruth (Eddingfield) Weak. After high school, Horace enlisted in the US Marines, serving 3 years. After returning home, Horace was a supervisor at Modern Plastics for 43 years until his retirement in 2003. Horace was a dedicated worker with attention to detail. He led an orderly life. Horace sometimes appeared to be grumpy, but he had a heart of gold. He was a very caring person. Horace loved bingo. He also loved traveling and RVing. Horace will be greatly missed. He will always be remembered as "Horace Was A Good Guy".

Horace is survived by his son, Howard Hall of Dowagiac; by his brother, Bryan (Lynn) Weak, of Lexington, Kentucky and by his 2 grandchildren. He was preceded by his wife, Opal, in 1996 and his brother, Eugene, in 2016.

HO

Joan,
It's Howard, Horace son. Thank you for your kind words.
I have an an aunt and her name was Pat. Is that the person you're talking about?
