“ So sorry to hear that Shane has passed. I just saw this on the internet, as I was trying to reach Shane to do some more work for me. I haven't known him long, but he was one of the sweetest guys. Was great at what he did. Yes, he will be missed. My prayers and thoughts to his family and friends

“ My first memory of Joel was decorating Aunt Helen and Uncle Lester's Christmas tree. We were messing around with the ornaments and he hung them over his ears like dangling ear rings. It was so funny. I wont ever forget that. RIH Joel. You will be missed.

“ Many great memories growing up with you Joel. My favorite are the four trees in our Niebobor hood that we hung out in and could see everything going on in our world. In the Fields tree we could see your house the Wittigs, across the lake to the access and the Emery's . Behind the Tanners down the path was the big pine we could see the Perkys and any cars on Johnson. Behind my house the big oak we Looked out over the sand dune ,creek and the red slide on the lake. The tree next to the church that overlooked the Evetts and passing cars on Hagar shore. Thanks for being my friend! Rip
