“ Joe showed a great sense of humor and at times would wheel his wheelchair right up to my office door so I couldn't get out When I finally did and I would ask him what he had done, he would be giggling! I also used to stand behind him and gently rub his head because he seemed to find comfort in it. Sandy, there is no greater daughter than you! Your love, dedication, and devotion to your father will remain in my memory for a long time. I know your hurt is deep, but your love is deeper. As you told me, "it was time". And I believe we will all be reunited in heaven one day. My love to you.
