

Kathryn Figel

July 13, 1925 - December 13, 2018

Kathryn (Prokopchuk) Figel went to rest with her Heavenly Father on December 13, 2018 at Caretel Inn in St. Joseph, Michigan.

Kathryn was born in Eau Claire, Michigan on July 13, 1925 at the family homestead. She spent nearly her entire life raising her family and farming in Eau Claire. During World War II, she followed her husband to California to work in the military as a logistics assistant. Afterwards they spent a short time living in Chicago. In addition to raising children, her favorite things were polka dancing, playing bingo and going on vacation throughout the country.

On November 19, 1944 she married Paul Figel in Chicago. Together they raised two sons, Paul (Cynthia) Figel and Lawrence (Janet) Figel. She was Grandma to Tracy (Will) Althouse, Kimberly (Mike) Hochstetler, Jason (Michelle) Figel and Jamie (Matt) Ferry. Great-Grandma to Deven, Raven, Angelina, Alexander, Matt Jr., Hunter, Mason, Dylan and Easton.

She was preceded in death by her husband Paul Figel and infant daughter, Sandy. Also, brother John and sister Anna.

Funeral arrangements are being handled by Florin Funeral Services. Please share memories and photos at www.florin.net. In lieu of flowers, please donate to SS. John & Bernard Parish.

Visitation will take place on Tuesday, December 18, 2018 from 9:30-11 at St. Bernard's Catholic Church, with Catholic Mass at 11. Burial to follow at Cavalry Cemetery in Benton Harbor.

“ To the Figel family,
Your mother was a very dear friend to our mother, Hazel DeSchaaf. They spoke on the phone frequently and always sat with each other at Whirlpool events.

We were saddened to learn of Kathryn's passing. May the Lord comfort you; and know that she has joined your father Paul in heaven.

God Bless, Cliff and Pat DeSchaaf
