“ To the Mrs. Winnell and Family:

Saddened to learn of the passing of Mr. Winnell, truly someone that left many wonderful memories to cherish. Many of our same memories will keep him in the hearts of everyone that knew and loved him. From the time Moose and I played baseball together in little league, to now. The love he shared has never faded just gotten stronger. May God continue to bless your family and friends..

“ Dearest friend, Barb, and family. Our love and sympathy go out to all of you. I wanted to let you know why Bob and I can't be there with you tonight or tomorrow in body. We will be there in spirit. Bob and I both have this "Coughing Crud" as I call it. Wouldn't dare hug (and you know I am a hugger) or even hold hands. Too much of a chance of spreading this. Be sure to know that our thoughts and prayers are with you and will continue to be. God bless you and keep you through this. Bob and Dee Wisner.

“ We will miss Lawrence as a wonderful & most helpful neighbor in time of need. His willingness to share his time & knowledge on any project we were unprepared for, made up a part of this neighborhood that will now be greatly missed. Rest in peace Lawrence, you earned it. “ Grandpa Winnell, as my son Patrick referred to him, always had an open heart to family and friends. We loved that he always was joking around with us, and had a hearty laugh and big hugs for us. A few weeks ago we each had hold of one of his hands, and we told him we loved him. He told Patrick to stay on the straight and narrow. We thanked him for being such a good example of love! We are honored he was a part of our life, and always will be carried in our heart.
