

Lewis Leetz

January 9, 1920 - September 13, 2010

Lewis Leetz, 90, of Watervliet passed away early Monday, Sept. 13, 2010, at his home.

A committal service celebrating his life will be held at 2 p.m. Friday, Sept. 17, at the Coloma Cemetery with Pastor Billy Long officiating. Military rites will conclude the committal. The Davidson Chapel of Florin Funeral Service, Coloma has been entrusted with the arrangements. Those wishing to send the family a message of condolence may do so online at www.florin.net.

Lewis was born Jan. 9, 1920 in Almena Township near Mattawan, to William and Kathryn Leetz. Lewis proudly served his country during World War II in the United States Air Force. He was a grape farmer who was known for his “weed-free vineyards”. He enjoyed out-door activities including fishing, deer hunting and gardening. He will be remembered as being an avid reader who was a “walking historian”. Most of all, Lewis loved and cherished his family.

Lewis is survived by his daughter, Sharon (John Guntle) Ruggles of Watervliet; granddaughter, Katie Ruggles of Berrien Springs; sister, Ann Gluch of Kalamazoo; brother, Norman Leetz of Kalamazoo; and by numerous nieces and nephews.

In addition to his parents, Lewis was preceded in death by his wife, Kathryn A.

Leetz, in 1993; and by his siblings, Gertrude Preston, Sylvia Horne, Aleen Gunnett, Margurite Revore, Edward Leetz and Betty Keeler.
