“ You were always so strong, a mother to admire. It's been a wonderful time growing from young adults as friends and coworkers with you. We were pregnant at the same time with Kali and Kenny and I loved checking in with each other, comparing how we were feeling and hoping I never had to deliver a baby like you did with Jase haha Love you girl ♡ You will be missed, that's for sure.

“ My heart aches as I write this to know I'll never see her, hear her voice or laughter. I worked at the café in MercyHealth and Lindsee would visit often, sometimes multiple times a day. Sympathy, prayers and love for Lindsees family and most of all those dear children who meant the world to her. Lindsee, you'll be missed by so many.

“ I worked with Lindsee at Mercy Health Southwest. My office was right beside the front desk where she worked so hard to greet and register patients entering into the emergency room. She was always so warm and welcoming to everyone. She also had a very calm presence and was able to comfort those that were anxious and upset. She could also register a patient faster and with more accuracy than anyone! This was such an important and valuable skill as when patients are experiencing a true emergency time is of the essence!

I will also miss hearing Lindsee's laugh. It was infectious. Lindsee has such a kind spirit, a genuine love for her coworkers and her friends. Most importantly though I know Lindsee loved her beautiful kids more than anything.

She leaves a void that cannot be filled. Her Saint Mary's family will miss her every day.

“Lindsee taught me the confidence I didn't have yet. She was 5 years older than me and by the time I met her I just thought she had herself DOWN. Confidence, personality, and just so solid in who she was. There were a few 1 am nights at uncle Larry's where we would just talk about boys or joke about white girls dancing off beat. She gave me those older girl talks I needed at that age. She made me more confident in my weight. When there were times I was upset and when others didn't understand, she did. I can't believe she's gone. She was the best thing in Michigan by far.”

“The memories are endless, starting before your birth. When Uncle Dave cut the cord, your mom and I swear something passed between you because you were so much alike. I remember him holding you and walking around the house showing you his duck collection. At each one, he would point and say "duck". It was one of your first words. We are so blessed to have had you in our lives, even if the time was so short. RIP peace our beautiful Goddaughter.”
