“ Lorna, as she was known to me, lived with my family with her brothers and sisters because her mother couldn't take care of them after the death of the father. My mother was Lorna's aunt. Lorna's mother was my mother's sister. She lived with us until she graduated from high school which made the length of time my entire life; therefore, I always thought of her as my older sister. I have been looking for information about her for several years. Now my search is over. May the family know that she was one of the best sisters in the world. Bonnie Drye cbs@rollings.com
