

Loren M. Kniebes

December 8, 1979 - March 9, 2018

Loren Michael Kniebes, 38, of Bridgman, died unexpectedly Friday, March 9, 2018 at his home.

Visitation will be held Wednesday, March 14 at 10:00 am at the Fairplain Chapel, Florin Funeral Service, 1053 E. Napier Ave, Benton Township. Services celebrating his life will be held at 11:00 am. Reverend Norman Crawford, with the Napier Parkview Baptist Church will be officiating. Arrangements have been handled by the Fairplain Chapel of Florin Funeral Service, Benton Township. Please share messages, memories or photos at www.florin.net,

Loren was born in Benton Harbor to Clinton and Maureen (Livingston) Kniebes. Loren was employed as a dry waller most of his life with his last place of employment at Bill Geukes Drywall. Among the things he enjoyed were watching the Wolverines television, fishing, bicycle riding and most outdoor activities. Most of all he cherished time spent with his family, Alexyss was the apple of his eye He was very proud of Alexyss and the young, independent woman she was becoming and fulfilling her dream of going to college. He was very hard working and watched out closely for some of his neighbors. He had a kind and generous heart and was a gentlemen, kind and considerate always looking for a way to help people close to him. He was positively independent, straight forward and would not ask others to do anything he would not do. He enjoyed all aspects of life including loving, helping, and spending time with Maureen enjoying the moment.

His family includes his daughter, Alexyss; significant other, Maureen Cavanaugh, Grandparents Loren and Sandra Kniebes, mother-in-law Judy Wymer, and Alexyss's mother Nichole Kniebes and Loren's father, Clinton Kniebes. Preceding him in death was his mother. Please make memorials and donation to Alexyss Kniebes. He is survived by many aunts, uncles, and cousins.
