“ I am so very sorry for your loss. I lived by them when I was growing up in Fairplain. They were a loving and kind family. I was probably 10 years old when I would go there and play. I always remember Cecil playing the guitar. He was great then , his brother and sister are very kind and loving people. You were all bless to have such a loving good family . Gods blessings to you all. I am so truly sorry, but I'm sure she is an angel in heaven now. Gods blessing to the family.
