Lyn retired from the U.S. Navy with over 20 years of meritorious service. He finished his service aboard the USS George Washington in 1993. Achieving the enlisted rank of senior chief, he earned many awards throughout his career including the Vietnam Service Medal, Vietnam Campaign Medal, and Combat Action Ribbon. He also earned his prized naval aircrew wings as well as his air warfare and surface warfare pins.

He returned to his hometown of Benton Harbor after retirement from the Navy. He loved the sand and surf. He was an avid and devoted dog lover who took his "kids", Mikie, Shannon, Gemma, and Mltzie for daily runs on the beach or in the park

So sorry to his family and friends for this great loss. I will always remember that smile he greeted me with...even after all those years.
