“ My mother (Gloria Ann) loved her sister . My mother loved all of her siblings but MARCIA was very special to her. MARCIA and Gloria were 9 years apart, and Aunt Gail came along. The other children would tease my mother and tell her she was not the baby any more. Aunt Marcia told Gloria you are by baby. After that Aunt Marcia looked after her little sister ,Gloria. My mother always remembered her kindness. She also had my mother’s broken arm fixed. At that time mom was 10. Aunt MARCIA had come home from college. Some things you never forget. Aunt MARCIA you will truly be missed. We love you.
