“ I worked with your Mom for many years! She worked OR, I was a new recovery room nurse in 1981! She was the experienced nurse. Things I remember about Marilyn: she worked hard and was always an advocate for her patients! She knew what to do, and wanted things done correctly. About 30 years into my recovery room nursing career, I said to some of the nurses that also worked with her from years ago, "oh my gosh, I just had a thought, I'm Marilyn Reimer!", this is a compliment to me!! It meant, that I spoke to the point when needed, did my job, and did it correctly (plus I was a little older, tee hee).

She always made May baskets! Several years ago I took care of a friend or neighbor of hers. Since I knew the friend wouldn't remember because of the anesthetic, I wrote in the card we always sent, "tell Marilyn hello, and tell her I miss her and remember her May baskets". Several months later, on May 1, here she comes up to recovery room with a May basket for me!!!

I am sorry for your loss, she spoke fondly of all her kids and grandkids. Somewhere up in heaven, she is caring for those around her.

Fondly, Sue Griffin
