“ Uncle Mark and I weren't very close, but the memories I have are of a kind, quiet, God fearing man. I remember the humor and love shared between him and Aunt Bonnie. I remember going to church with them and liked listening to the music he and the band played. He was gifted with a talent of carpentry and he recently made some beautiful keepsakes that will be forever cherished. He and Aunt Bonnie were two people that loved God and shared with me at a young age the importance of having a relationship with Him. He's now in a place free of worry, pain and heartbreak and he's with his lovey again. Rest in peace Uncle Mark 🧡

“ Pastor Mark a as such a caring person, always making sure to ask each member of his flock "How are you doing today", because he was genuinely concerned for all. I'm sure Bonnie is waiting to hold your hand again. RIP Mark -no more worries, no more pain. You will remain in our 💕💕.
