“ Patti was a fun and caring coworker at Memorial Hospital Physical Therapy, treasured by patients and staff alike. She was generous with her talents. I remember her coming to my home for cookie - baking, and her making my then - 3 year old daughter feel as if she were an important part of the proceedings.
Although we hadn't seen each other in almost 30 years, Patti's cordial Christmas correspondence kept me in the warm fold of her friendship.
I am privileged to have known her, and will hold her memory in my heart always.
