Reba was born on August 27, 1940, in Truman, Arkansas, to Dill and Elsie Hammons. She worked along with her parents and siblings as a migrant worker. Her father was a sharecropper and Reba helped with taking produce to market, planting, and picking cotton in Arkansas. The family then moved to Michigan for the harvest season here, picking strawberries, blueberries, and other fruit. They lived in a one room cabin on the farm. At age 18, she married her first husband, and father of her children. When that marriage ended, she married her second husband, Walter Daisy. She lost him in 1997 to a heart attack. She worked at Grand Tran and Assembly Components until she retired. She never married again. She lived independently after her son married and left her home of 52 years on Paw Paw Avenue in Watervliet. She enjoyed dancing and playing bingo until both got too difficult for her failing body. She lived a long life and was blessed with a big, beautiful family that she loved beyond measure.

Reba's family members are her daughter, Teresa (Bobby) Wagner, of Dowagiac, her son, Chris (Nancy) Harrell, of Hartford; her grandchildren, Richard Reese (who is expecting his first child-granddaughter Olive), Tara Kremer, and Angela Huff; her great grandchildren, Maxwell Kremer, Bryson Reese, Scarlet Huff, and Tallulah Huff; and her sisters, Shirley (Junior) Mann and Bonnie Mills, along with many nieces and nephews.

She is preceded in death by her son, Rocky Harrell; her husband, Walt Daisy; her parents, Dill and Elsie Hammons; her siblings, John Thomas and his wife Glenda, Noma Kring,

Norman Troy and his wife Estell Hammons, Lola Barr, Janice and Joe Rich, Danny (Bud) and Judy, Bob Wayne and his wife Diane, and three others taken as children, Bobby, Martha, and Helen.

“ Teresa and family: I am sorry to share with you that I will not be able to attend Reba's service on Saturday. We are leaving in the morning for Florida and it has been planned for a while. I do however want to share a few thoughts with you the family. Reba and I had many talks sharing a room while recovering at Timbers. One night she asked me if I believed in heaven. After a strong response of yes she said can we pray about that together. We did...out loud..the Lord's Prayer. I also sang to her a song about heaven. There is not doubt in my mind that she is there..celebrating the gift of eternal life. Thank you for allowing her to be in my life. I will always remember our late night stories...be strong...your Mother would want you to be. I will keep all of you in my thoughts and prayers. With an abundant respect for her...I am Linda Van Dyke

“ She was always doing everything she could to make sure us kids were taken care of. We didn't always have everything we wanted, but we surely had everything we needed. She never put herself first. She worked hard to provide a roof over our heads and food on the table. She was a strong woman and she was determined to be the best mom she could. I will miss her every day. She left a legacy that will be hard to repeat. I will do my best to make her as proud of me as I am of her. Rest easy mamma until we meet again.

“ Aunt Reba always had a smile that could light up the room and the best little giggle that made everyone around her laugh too. As a little girl, I loved going to stay at her house — she and Uncle Walt made every visit to Michigan so much fun and full of laughter. Those memories are treasures I’ll always hold close.

Throughout my life, Aunt Reba was always there when I needed someone to talk to — a steady, caring voice of reason who could make me laugh even in hard times. She was strong, loving, brave, and free-spirited. I deeply admired her strength and courage, and I’m so grateful for the love and wisdom she shared with me over the years.

She lived with a beautiful light that reflected the love of God, and though my heart aches at her passing, I find comfort in knowing she’s now at peace and surrounded by His everlasting love.

Aunt Reba, I will miss you dearly. Thank you for being such a special part of my life. Your laughter, kindness, and strength will stay with me always.

Love Always
