“ Bob and Alice were our neighbors when when I was a child. They became best friends with my parents and that bond carried through my whole life. Bob was like a grandfather to me. I loved him dearly, and miss him terribly. He was always quick with a joke, a kind word, and a hug. He was such a generous, loving person. I am thankful to have called him family all these years.

“ Bob was the best neighbor a person could ask for. He did so much to help me, a single mom, without ever asking for anything in return. He always greeted me with a smile when I stopped by to visit after moving away. He will be missed.

“ He was one of the nicest person I meet. He you help you do anything. We would go out to eat and back to his house and play cards. He loved to play cards. We would sit and talk for hours. He was a good man. Gonna miss you Bob.....
