“ I remember Wayne sitting outside watching Evan and the chickens. He enjoyed Klarisa's ball games too. Jennifer took him to the lake for cookouts and fireworks. She involved him in her life and his grandkid's.
He was always nice to Ray and me and we will miss seeing him around.
He and Stewart got along and Wayne spent many days and nights at their home.
He could not of had a more caring daughter than Jennifer. She done all she could for him.
