“ My Aunt Sandy was my whole life ,i took care of her when noone else was there thru out all last winter i was there when she needed the most ,seems funny noone seem to care enough to remember my mom who has already preceded her in death or myself or my brother during this hard time , our names being left out and being told the wrong time of her funeral so we couldnt make it there to pay our respect .my aunt sandy was a blessing and a angel ,she was a mom and someone who taught me to be strong and honest and to always be honest and loved me for who i was . sandy was a character and loved with her whole heart and she would have never been happy with the way things turned out with the disrespcct that is being shown ,how sad not a tear was cried at her service and how her house was pilfered thru before she was even buried ,but its ok because she has seen all and we all know who can live with a clean conscience and who cant .I LOVE YOU AUNT SANDY ALWAYS .. NOW YOU ARE IN THE ARMS OF A ANGEL AND CAN REST IN PEACE
