“ Stephen "Polock" Zandarski or as I knew him as Steve was my next door neighbor a man with a vast knowledge of many things. He was a man who was like a time machine to the past (Old Days) and a good guy to talk with about things around town that I had forgotten long ago, and things I had not ever heard about..... My sympathies to his daughter Emily and son Stephan and family's. Rick Heinz

“ Me and my brother Henry grew up in the same "hood" with the Zandarski Family. When Steve and I were kids we worked on a farm together, went fishing on the St. Joe River and when pheasant season came, we went bird hunting even tho the school system got upset. Steve would say "they'll get over it". Shooting pool, we only lost a couple of games "dead-eye Steve" took it out. Steve was a top machinist. He would make parts for machines instead of buying new ones. He could also drive a semi if needed. My brother and I will miss our friend. Harold Schlipp regarding a memory of Stephen "Polack" Zandarski Jr. we send condolences to the family.
