“ Lil Timmy....how sad I am. I wish I could say I have stayed close to you, I haven't, but imagine my shock/happiness/awe when I found that my dear friend Amber C. considered you a BEST friend of hers. I'll never forget her saying "NUH UUH" when I told her I knew you, used to babysit you with Shelly and when I asked her if you still had your "rockin" habit! lol...It was great to know you grew up to be an honorable, family & friend loving man, just as you were as a child. Our families are heavily so intertwined, I've always considered ya'll cousins.... so sorry to see you go, so sorry for your friends to face tomorrow without your wonderful smile. Keep smiling down on everyone.... My sincere condolences to everyone.

“ Everyone who knew Timmy knew that he always put his family first. Especially the little ones. He showed up for all the birthday parties no matter what. My special memory I would like to share is this. Munchie (Lamont) was in head start and his class was to be in the Apple Festival Parade here in Niles. His class was going on the hay wagon and in order for Munchie to be allowed to do this he needed an adult to go with him. Timmy was the first one to volunteer and to see little Munchies face with Uncle Timmy was priceless. The funny thing was after the parade we had to hunt them down and we spent about an hour looking for them. They were lost and when we asked Timmy what had happened his response was that he thought they had to walk all the way back to the starting point. Timmy, I would have liked to think that we were very close but as life goes when people grow up they grow apart. I have always thought highly of you and knew that you were growing up to be a fine young man. It saddens me to think that we will not be able to talk again at future family parties. You will be missed.
